Article - Estates and Trusts

[Previous][Next]

§3–108.

Property of an illegitimate person passes in accordance with the usual rules of intestate succession, except that the father or his relations can inherit only if the person is treated as the child of the father pursuant to § 1–208 of this article.

[Previous][Next]