[Previous][Next]

§9–667.

If the sanitary commission determines that any part of an independent system is unfit for incorporation into a project, the sanitary commission may:

(1) Disregard the unfit parts of the independent system; and

(2) Extend its project into the area served by the unfit parts of the independent system.

[Previous][Next]