---------------------	--

The City of Rockville appreciates the opportunity to request financial support for the David Scull Park renovation project. The State of Maryland has partnered with the city on many successful bond bill projects in the past to service hundreds of thousands of Maryland residents and visitors. We look forward to our successful partnership with the State of Maryland. The funding received from State Bond bills have supported the delivery of high-quality projects to the Rockville community.

Thank you for your support and consideration for the David Scull Park renovation project.
