Article - Insurance

[Previous][Next]

§4–404.

If a life insurer denies a policy of life insurance to an applicant, the life insurer shall disclose the results of any medical examination administered to determine the applicant's insurability to a physician of the applicant's choice if the applicant so requests.

[Previous][Next]