§2–504.

The Department may grant an extension of a temporary fuel variance for an additional period of not more than 60 days, if the petitioner gives the Department additional information that justifies the extension.