Article - Local Government

[Previous][Next]

§4–103.

(a) The residents of a municipality are a municipal corporation.

(b) Under the municipality's corporate name, the municipality:

(1) has perpetual succession;

(2) may sue and be sued; and

(3) may enact and adopt ordinances, resolutions, or bylaws necessary to exercise the authority of the municipality.

[Previous][Next]