Article - Public Utilities

[Previous][Next]

§21–103.

If the Commission does not consider the property necessary for the operation of its water, sewer, or stormwater management systems, the Commission may sell, lease, transfer, convey, or dispose of any of its real or personal property on terms and conditions that the Commission considers advantageous.

[Previous][Next]