Article - Health - General

[Previous][Next]

§19–909.

(a) While it is effective, a general license authorizes the general licensee to operate a general hospice care program.

(b) (1) While it is effective, a limited license authorizes the limited licensee to operate a limited hospice care program.

(2) A limited licensee may not provide any medical, nursing, or other health services directly or through a contractual arrangement.

[Previous][Next]