Article - State Government

[Previous][Next]

§11–404.

(a) Each State unit that has authority to issue a development permit shall help the Coordinator to develop an appendix to the State master application form designed to supplement the information on the form and provide the particular information that the State unit needs to issue its development permit.

(b) The form of the appendices shall be as similar as possible.

[Previous][Next]