Article - State Government

[Previous][Next]

§11–505.

An applicant who requires a development permit from a local government and a development permit from a State unit may request a joint hearing before the local government and the State unit from which the development permits are required.

[Previous][Next]