Article - Public Safety

[Previous][Next]

§3–412.

(a) Employment of a railroad police officer ends on the retirement, resignation, or termination of the railroad police officer.

(b) The powers granted to a railroad police officer under this subtitle end when the employment of the railroad police officer ends.

(c) Within 10 days after the employment of a railroad police officer ends, the railroad company that employed the railroad police officer shall file notice with the Governor that the employment has ended.

[Previous][Next]