Article - Environment

[Previous][Next]

§15–304.

The Bureau may establish a place within the mining area of the State to give instruction to an applicant for a "first-class mine foreman's certificate", a "fire-boss certificate", or a "permit of competence", and other instruction required under this subtitle or any rule and regulation made under it. The Bureau may conduct courses in order to qualify properly any person who makes application for the various types of certificates.

[Previous][Next]