Article - Natural Resources

[Previous][Next]

§10–613.

If a licensee erects a stationary blind or blind site or sets a stake and the stationary blind, blind site, or stake is lost or destroyed in a manner beyond the licensee's control, the licensee may not lose the licensee's location and may reestablish the stationary blind, blind site, or stake at any time during the current hunting season.

[Previous][Next]