Article - Education

[Previous][Next]

§7–301.2.

Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a county board may count toward high school attendance the time an apprentice or youth apprentice spends during work–based training with an employer under a registered apprenticeship program.

[Previous][Next]