FISCAL NOTE

House Joint Resolution 16 (Delegate Curran)
Commerce and Government Matters

Governing Local Governments Into the 21st Century

This joint resolution encourages local governments in the State to consider the concept of performance-based governance with its reliance on performance measuring for its applicability and usage in guiding their practices and policies to achieve a competitive advantage.

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: None.

Local Effect: None. Encouraging local governments to adopt performance-based governance would not directly affect county and municipal finances.
