Article - Education

[Previous][Next]

§24–1204.

If the University establishes a police department under this subtitle, the University shall continue to make use of University security personnel or building guards in addition to the police department.

[Previous][Next]