Article - Health - General

[Previous][Next]

§7.5–206.

No otherwise–qualified individual with a behavioral health disorder, solely by reason of the individual's status as an individual with a behavioral health disorder, shall be denied the services of, or be subjected to discrimination by, any public or private hospital or community–based treatment program.

[Previous][Next]