Article - Real Property

[Previous][Next]

§12–211.

Except for any federal or State law providing low income housing assistance, a payment received under this subtitle may not be considered as income for the purposes of Title 10 of the Tax - General Article or for the purposes of determining the eligibility or extent of eligibility of any person for assistance under any other State law.

[Previous][Next]