Article - State Government

[Previous][Next]

§11–523.

Administrative and judicial review of the final action of a local government or State unit on an application for a development permit shall be in accordance with the law and procedures governing the issuance of development permits by the local government or State unit.

[Previous][Next]