Article - Transportation

[Previous][Next]

§21–807.

In each charge of a violation of any speed regulation under the Maryland Vehicle Law, the charging document shall specify:

(1) The speed at which the defendant is alleged to have driven;

(2) If the charge is for exceeding a maximum lawful speed, the maximum speed limit applicable at the location; and

(3) If the charge is for driving below a minimum lawful speed, the minimum speed limit applicable at the location.

[Previous][Next]