4 (2) This section does not apply to an action for damages filed under Title
5 3, Subtitle 2A of this article.

6 (3) Subject to the provisions of paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subsection,
7 the provisions of this section apply to a proceeding in:

8 (i) The District Court; or

9 (ii) A circuit court if the amount in controversy in the action in the 10 circuit court does not exceed the amount specified in § 4-401 of this article for that 11 type of action.

12 (c) (1) A writing or record of a health care provider described in this section 13 is admissible under this section if:

14 (i) The writing or record is offered in the trial of a civil action in the 15 District Court or a circuit court;

16 (ii) At least 60 days, except as provided in paragraph (2) of this 17 subsection, before the beginning of the trial, the party who intends to introduce the 18 writing or record:

19 1. Serves notice of the party's intent to introduce the writing
20 or record without the support of a health care provider's testimony, a list that 21 identifies each writing or record, and a copy of the writing or record on all other
22 parties as provided under Maryland Rule 1-321; and

23 2. Files notice of service and the list that identifies each
24 writing or record with the court; and

25 (iii) The writing or record is otherwise admissible.

26 (2) A party who receives a notice under paragraph (1) of this subsection
27 and intends to introduce another writing or record of a health care provider without a 28 health care provider's testimony shall:

29 (i) Serve a notice of intent, a list that identifies each writing or 30 record, and a copy of the writing or record at least 30 days before the beginning of the 31 trial; and

32 (ii) File notice of service and the list that identifies each writing or 33 record with the court.

34 (3) The list required under paragraphs (1) and (2) of this subsection shall 35 include:

1 (i) The name of the health care provider for each writing or record;

2 and

3 (ii) The date of each writing or record of the health care provider or 4 each date of treatment by the health care provider.

5 (d) (1) A writing or record of a health care provider made to document a 6 medical, dental, or other health condition, a health care provider's opinion, or the 7 providing of health care is admissible without the support of the testimony of a health
8 care provider as the maker or the custodian of the writing or record as evidence of the 9 existence of a medical, dental, or health condition, the opinion, and the necessity and 10 the providing of health care.

11 (2) A finder of fact may attach whatever weight to a writing or record
12 that the finder of fact deems appropriate.

13 (e) (1) A written statement or bill for health care expenses is admissible
14 without the support of the testimony of a health care provider as the maker or the 15 custodian of the statement or bill as evidence of the amount, fairness, and 16 reasonableness of the charges for the services or materials provided.

17 (2) A finder of fact may attach whatever weight to a writing or record
18 that the finder of fact deems appropriate.

19 (f) Nothing contained in this section may be construed to limit the right of a 20 party to:

21 (1) Request a summons to compel the attendance of a witness;

22 (2) Examine a witness who appears at trial; or

23 (3) Engage in discovery as provided under the Maryland Rules.

24 SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall be
25 construed only prospectively and may not be applied or interpreted to have any effect
26 on or application to any case filed before the effective date of this Act.

27 SECTION 3. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect
28 October 1, 2000.
