19 Preamble

20 WHEREAS, Millions of Africans were forcibly brought into Maryland from the 4 their African American descendants, as well as on the social development of 5 Maryland, generally remains inadequately researched and taught; and

6 WHEREAS, A mechanism is needed to network museums, cultural 7 organizations, cultural parks and centers, and private collections in order to support 8 the cataloging, preservation, and presentation of cultural resources relative to the 9 history and legacy of slavery in Maryland; and

10 WHEREAS, An entity is needed to work with grass roots organizations, 11 foundations, and government agencies in publicizing and seeking support for 12 initiatives relating to the history and legacy of slavery, with special attention to the 13 development of initiatives aimed at and benefitting Maryland youth; and

14 WHEREAS, The State needs to target funding for the identification and 15 maintenance of library and archival resources relevant to the history and legacy of 16 slavery, in order to produce guides and maintain on-line databases of relevant 17 holdings, especially holdings not appropriately cataloged and documented; and

18 WHEREAS, There needs to be an aggressive, racially inclusive campaign in 19 Maryland to identify historical sites throughout the State that relate to the history 20 and legacy of slavery - including historically African American communities that 21 developed as a result of slavery, Reconstruction, and Jim Crow practices - and to 22 monitor the preservation and development of those sites; and

23 WHEREAS, There needs to be an entity in Maryland that will keep the State 24 informed of how best to support programs and initiatives to commemorate the middle 25 passage, slavery, indentured servitude, and the underground railroad; and

26 WHEREAS, There needs to be an entity in Maryland that can keep the State 27 informed of the latest research on the lingering psychological, sociological, and 28 economic impacts of slavery and its legacy, including the impact on crime and crime 29 control; and

30 WHEREAS, There needs to be an entity in Maryland to work cooperatively 31 with private and public tourist agencies and organizations to oversee and monitor the 32 allocation of public resources to sites and undertakings relating to the history and 33 legacy of slavery in Maryland, and ensure that there is a fair allocation of resources
