CHAPTER 131

1 AN ACT concerning

2 Criminal Procedure - Expungement - Law Enforcement Unit

3 FOR the purpose of including the State Prosecutor in the definition of "law
4 enforcement unit" as it is used in provisions of law relating to the expungement
5 of certain court or police records; and generally relating to expungement of court
6 and police records.

7 BY repealing and reenacting, with amendments,
8 Article - Criminal Procedure
9 Section 10-101
10 Annotated Code of Maryland
11 (2001 Volume)

12 BY repealing and reenacting, without amendments,
13 Article - Criminal Procedure
14 Section 10-102 through 10-105
15 Annotated Code of Maryland
16 (2001 Volume)

17 SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF 18 MARYLAND, That the Laws of Maryland read as follows:

1

Article - Criminal Procedure

2 10-101.

3 (a) In this subtitle the following words have the meanings indicated.

4 (b) "Central Repository" means the Criminal Justice Information System
5 Central Repository in the Department.6 (c) (1) "Court record" means an official record of a court about a criminal 7 proceeding that the clerk of a court or other court personnel keeps.

8 (2) "Court record" includes:

9 (i) a record of a violation of the Transportation Article for which a 10 term of imprisonment may be imposed; and11 (ii) an index, docket entry, charging document, pleading, 12 memorandum, transcription of proceedings, electronic recording, order, and 13 judgment.14 (d) "Expunge" means to remove information from public inspection in 15 accordance with this subtitle.16 (e) "Expungement" with respect to a court record or a police record means
17 removal from public inspection:

18 (1) by obliteration;

19 (2) by removal to a separate secure area to which persons who do not 20 have a legitimate reason for access are denied access; or21 (3) if access to a court record or police record can be obtained only by 22 reference to another court record or police record, by the expungement of it or the part
23 of it that provides access.24 (f) "Law enforcement unit" means a State, county, or municipal police
25 department or unit, the office of a sheriff, the office of a State's Attorney, THE OFFICE
26 OF THE STATE PROSECUTOR, or the office of the Attorney General of the State.27 (g) "Minor traffic violation" means a nonincarcerable violation of the 28 Maryland Vehicle Law or any other traffic law, ordinance, or regulation.29 (h) "Police record" means an official record that a law enforcement unit,
30 booking facility, or the Central Repository maintains about the arrest and detention 31 of, or further proceeding against, a person for:

32 (1) a criminal charge;

33 (2) a suspected violation of a criminal law; or

1 (3) a violation of the Transportation Article for which a term of 2 imprisonment may be imposed.

3 10-102.

4 (a) A police record or a court record may be expunged under this subtitle.

5 (b) (1) A court record or a police record that existed before July 1, 1975, and 6 is still maintained, may be expunged under this subtitle.

7 (2) A person who is entitled to the expungement of a court record or a
8 police record that existed before July 1, 1975, may use the procedures for 9 expungement provided under this subtitle.

10 (3) The limitation periods provided in §§ 10-103 and 10-105 of this 11 subtitle begin when the person becomes entitled to expungement of a court record or 12 a police record that existed before July 1, 1975.

13 (4) The custodian of court records or police records that were made
14 before July 1, 1975, and that may be expunged under this subtitle:

15 (i) shall make a reasonable search for a record requested for 16 expungement; but

17 (ii) need not expunge a court record or a police record that is not 18 found after a reasonable search.

19 (c) This subtitle does not apply to:

20 (1) a record about a minor traffic violation;

21 (2) the published opinion of a court;

22 (3) a cash receipt or disbursement record that is necessary for audit
23 purposes;

24 (4) a transcript of court proceedings made by a court reporter in a
25 multiple defendant case;

26 (5) an investigatory file; or

27 (6) a record of the work product of a law enforcement unit that is used
28 solely for police investigation.

29 10-103.

30 (a) A person who is arrested, detained, or confined by a law enforcement unit
31 for the suspected commission of a crime and then is released without being charged 32 with the commission of a crime may:

1 (1) give written notice of these facts to a law enforcement unit that the 2 person believes may have a police record about the matter; and

3 (2) request the expungement of the police record.

4 (b) (1) Except as provided in paragraph (2) of this subsection, a person may 5 not give notice under this subtitle before the statute of limitations expires for all tort 6 claims that arise from the incident.

7 (2) (i) A person may give notice before the statute of limitations
8 expires if the person attaches to the notice a written general waiver and release, in 9 legal form, of all tort claims that the person has arising from the incident.

10 (ii) The notice and waiver are not subject to expungement.

11 (3) The law enforcement unit shall keep the notice and waiver at least 12 until any applicable statute of limitations expires.

13 (4) The person shall give the notice within 8 years after the date of the 14 incident.

15 (c) (1) On receipt of a timely filed notice, the law enforcement unit promptly
16 shall investigate and try to verify the facts stated in the notice.

17 (2) If the law enforcement unit finds the facts are true, the law
18 enforcement unit shall:

19 (i) search diligently for each police record about the arrest,
20 detention, or confinement of the person;

21 (ii) expunge each police record it has about the arrest, detention, or 22 confinement within 60 days after receipt of the notice; and

23 (iii) send a copy of the notice and the law enforcement unit's
24 verification of the facts in the notice to:

25 1. the Central Repository;

26 2. each booking facility or law enforcement unit that the law
27 enforcement unit believes may have a police record about the arrest, detention, or 28 confinement; and

29 3. the person requesting expungement.

30 (d) Within 30 days after receipt of the notice, the Central Repository, booking
31 facility, and any other law enforcement unit shall search diligently for and expunge a 32 police record about the arrest, detention, or confinement.

33 (e) If the law enforcement unit to which the person has sent notice finds that 34 the person is not entitled to an expungement of the police record, the law enforcement 35 unit, within 60 days after receipt of the notice, shall advise the person in writing of:

1 (1) the denial of the request for expungement; and

2 (2) the reasons for the denial.

3 (f) (1) (i) If a request by the person for expungement of a police record is 4 denied under subsection (e) of this section, the person may apply for an order of 5 expungement in the District Court that has proper venue against the law
6 enforcement unit.

7 (ii) The person shall file the application within 30 days after the 8 written notice of the denial is mailed or delivered to the person.

9 (2) After notice to the law enforcement unit, the court shall hold a 10 hearing.

11 (3) If the court finds that the person is entitled to expungement, the 12 court shall order the law enforcement unit to expunge the police record.

13 (4) If the court finds that the person is not entitled to expungement of 14 the police record, the court shall deny the application.

15 (5) (i) The law enforcement unit is a party to the proceeding.

16 (ii) Each party to the proceeding is entitled to appellate review on 17 the record, as provided in the Courts Article for appeals in civil cases from the District
18 Court.

19 10-104.

20 (a) Unless the State objects and shows cause why a record should not be 21 expunged, if the State enters a nolle prosequi as to all charges in a criminal case
22 within the jurisdiction of the District Court with which a defendant has not been 23 served, the District Court may order expungement of each court record, police record,
24 or other record that the State or a political subdivision of the State keeps as to the 25 charges.

26 (b) The District Court may not assess any costs against a defendant for a 27 proceeding under subsection (a) of this section.

28 10-105.

29 (a) A person who has been charged with the commission of a crime, including
30 a violation of the Transportation Article for which a term of imprisonment may be 31 imposed, may file a petition listing relevant facts for expungement of a police record, 32 court record, or other record maintained by the State or a political subdivision of the 33 State if:

34 (1) the person is acquitted;

35 (2) the charge is otherwise dismissed;

1 (3) a probation before judgment is entered, unless the person is charged
2 with a violation of § 21-902 of the Transportation Article or Article 27, § 388A or §
3 388B of the Code;

4 (4) a nolle prosequi is entered;

5 (5) the court indefinitely postpones trial of a criminal charge by marking
6 the criminal charge "stet" on the docket;

7 (6) the case is compromised under Article 27, § 12A-5 of the Code;

8 (7) the charge was transferred to the juvenile court under § 4-202 of this 9 article; or

10 (8) the person:

11 (i) is convicted of only one criminal act, and that act is not a crime 12 of violence; and

13 (ii) is granted a full and unconditional pardon by the Governor.

14 (b) (1) Except as provided in paragraphs (2) and (3) of this subsection, a 15 person shall file a petition in the court in which the proceeding began.

16 (2) If the proceeding began in one court and was transferred to another 17 court, the person shall file the petition in the court to which the proceeding was 18 transferred.

19 (3) (i) If the proceeding in a court of original jurisdiction was appealed 20 to a court exercising appellate jurisdiction, the person shall file the petition in the 21 appellate court.

22 (ii) The appellate court may remand the matter to the court of 23 original jurisdiction.

24 (c) (1) A petition for expungement based on an acquittal, a nolle prosequi, or 25 a dismissal may not be filed within 3 years after the disposition, unless the petitioner
26 files with the petition a written general waiver and release of all the petitioner's tort 27 claims arising from the charge.

28 (2) A petition for expungement based on a probation before judgment
29 may not be filed until either:

30 (i) the petitioner has been discharged from probation; or

31 (ii) 3 years have passed since the probation was granted.

32 (3) A petition for expungement based on a full and unconditional pardon
33 by the Governor may not be filed earlier than 5 years or later than 10 years after the 34 pardon was signed by the Governor.

1           (4)     A petition for expungement based on a stet or a compromise under
2 Article 27, § 12A-5 of the Code may not be filed within 3 years after the stet or 3 compromise.

4           (5)     A court may grant a petition for expungement at any time on a
5 showing of good cause.

6       (d)    (1)     The court shall have a copy of a petition for expungement served on 7 the State's Attorney.

8           (2)     Unless the State's Attorney files an objection to the petition for 9 expungement within 30 days after the petition is served, the court shall pass an order
10 requiring the expungement of all police records and court records about the charge.

11       (e)   (1)     If the State's Attorney files a timely objection to the petition, the 12 court shall hold a hearing.

13           (2)     If the court at the hearing finds that the person is entitled to 14 expungement, the court shall order the expungement of all police records and court
15 records about the charge.

16           (3)     If the court finds that the person is not entitled to expungement, the 17 court shall deny the petition.

18           (4)     The person is not entitled to expungement if:

19                   (i)     the petition is based on the entry of probation before judgment,
20 a nolle prosequi, or a stet, or the grant of a pardon by the Governor; and

21                   (ii)    the person:

22                           1.     since the full and unconditional pardon or entry, has been 23 convicted of a crime other than a minor traffic violation; or

24                           2.     is a defendant in a pending criminal proceeding.

25       (f)    Unless an order is stayed pending an appeal, within 60 days after entry of 26 the order, every custodian of the police records and court records that are subject to 27 the order of expungement shall advise in writing the court and the person who is 28 seeking expungement of compliance with the order.

29       (g)   (1)     The State's Attorney is a party to the proceeding.

30           (2)     A party aggrieved by the decision of the court is entitled to appellate 31 review as provided in the Courts Article.

32   SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take 33 effect October 1, 2002.
