9. Description and Purpose of Grantee Organization
Rockville Community Baseball, Inc. is a 501c3 non-profit organization formed to field a college level wood bat baseball team in the new Cal Ripken Sr. Maryland Collegiate baseball league and to improve youth sports facilities and opportunities in the area.
10. Description and Purpose of Project
The project will complete renovations to the baseball facilities including: surface improvements, additional fencing, renovation of dugouts and pressbox, installation of bleacher seating, installation of a new scoreboard, installation of lighting system to allow night games, installation of irrigation systems, and construction of concession and restroom facilities. This will provide the Rockville Community with the only quality lighted adult baseball field in the city. It will increase the available playing times for youth programs in the area (i.e. Rockville Boys Baseball Association), improve the athletic facilities at the college, and provide a suitable field for Rockville's team in the Cal Ripken Sr. league - the Rockville Express. This team and organization has been built on the basis of community participation and involvement . In addition to providing opportunities to see some of the best amateur baseball players in the country it will provide summer jobs and internships for local student and provide the community with a wonderful source of summer entertainment.
