9. Description and Purpose of Grantee Organization

Source

The Fayette Street Outreach Organization's purpose is to help to make our community a safer place for the residents that live there, and to give our youth an opportunity to enrich their lives. We will have an After School Program, and a Senior Citizen's program. We will also assist our community residents with referral contacts that will help them with their needs. We are currently working with the Community Service Workers.

10. Description and Purpose of Project

The purpose of having the office and community center is so that Fayette Street Outreach Organization can have a place to hold monthly community meetings, and board meetings. We will be able to have available workplace to corrdinate activities for our youth, senior citizens and interested residents of the community. We will also have a partnership with The Goodwill Industries to help us to create job training programs for the residents of our community. The square footage for the project is 3,060 feet.

28. Comments:
This center will play a very important part in our community. With this center we will be able to offer so much to our community residents by being able to offer them training programs, the youth after school programs, and our senior citizens program that will fit their needs and a more social environment. This center will also help us to reduce the crime rate in our community. This center will give our youth an opportunity to be able to make better choices for their futures.
