10 Preamble

11 WHEREAS, No child should die from maltreatment by a parent or caregiver; 12 and

13 WHEREAS, Child fatalities represent the ultimate failure of our child 14 protection and community systems; and

15 WHEREAS, Child fatality review teams have seen multiple deaths as a result of 16 repeated patterns of abuse of multiple offspring; and

17 WHEREAS, Parents and caregivers with a history of abuse or neglect or 18 criminal injury to a child present a preventable threat to the safety of Maryland’s 19 children; and

20 WHEREAS, Maryland courts have consistently interpreted the child in need of 21 assistance statute to allow judges to protect a sibling of a maltreated child; and

22 WHEREAS, Maryland courts have consistently held that a child can be 23 adjudicated a child in need of assistance after considering the prior conduct of a parent 24 or caregiver, that substantial risk of harm constitutes neglect, and that judges in 25 Maryland need not wait until a child suffers maltreatment before protecting the child; 26 and

27 WHEREAS, A court is unlikely to have the information necessary to protect a 28 child who is exposed to a person with a history of harming children unless a local 29 department of social services petitions the court to find that the child is in need of 30 assistance; and

31 WHEREAS, The Attorney General’s office has interpreted the statutory scheme 32 requiring a local department of social services to investigate abuse and neglect to be

1 incident based and, thus, not in harmony with the child in need of assistance statute;
2 and

3 WHEREAS, Families at risk of repeat, preventable death or injury of a child 4 need to be closely monitored and provided appropriate services; and

5 WHEREAS, To prevent death and injuries to children at substantial risk of 6 harm, local departments of social services should have a positive obligation to assess 7 risk and protect children; now, therefore,
