13 Preamble

14 WHEREAS, Maryland law authorizes up to 13 weeks of extended benefits for 15 eligible unemployed individuals who have exhausted all other forms of benefits; and

16 WHEREAS, With limited exceptions, the cost of most extended benefits is 17 shared equally between the State and the federal government; and

18 WHEREAS, The State extended benefits program is triggered “on” by certain 19 rates of insured unemployment; and

20 WHEREAS, Despite the recent economic downturn, the rate of insured
21 unemployment in Maryland has not reached the statutory level necessary to trigger 22 the extended benefits program “on”; and

23 WHEREAS, The federal government has temporarily authorized 100% federal 24 funding of the shareable costs of extended benefits paid to individuals separated from 25 insured employment; and

26 WHEREAS, To offer extended benefits, which would benefit Maryland’s
27 long-term unemployed and which would be largely 100% federally funded, Maryland 28 must adopt alternative triggers for the extended benefits program; now, therefore,

29 SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF 30 MARYLAND, That the Laws of Maryland read as follows:

31 Article – Labor and Employment

32 8–1103.

33 (a) An extended benefit period is a period that:

1 (1) begins with the 3rd week after the 1st week for which there is a
2 State “on” indicator but not earlier than the 14th week after the end of another 3 extended benefit period; and

4 (2) ends with the later of:

5 (i) the 3rd week after the 1st week for which there is a State
6 “off” indicator; or

7 (ii) the 13th consecutive week of the period.

8 (b) (1) A State “on” indicator for a week exists whenever, for that week
9 and the 12 immediately preceding weeks, the rate of insured unemployment, not 10 seasonally adjusted, is at least:

11 (i) 5%; and

12 (ii) 120% of the average of the rates for the corresponding 13 13–week period ending in each of the 2 preceding calendar years.

14 (2) After a State “on” indicator occurs under this subsection, a State
15 “off” indicator for a week exists whenever, for that week and the 12 immediately
16 preceding weeks, the rate of insured unemployment, not seasonally adjusted, is less 17 than:

18 (i) 5%; or

19 (ii) 120% of the average of the rates for the corresponding 20 13–week period ending in each of the 2 preceding calendar years.

21 (c) (1) A State “on” indicator exists for a week whenever, for that week
22 and the 12 immediately preceding weeks, the rate of insured unemployment, not 23 seasonally adjusted, is at least 6%.

24 (2) After a State “on” indicator occurs under this subsection, a State
25 “off” indicator exists for a week whenever, for that week and the 12 immediately
26 preceding weeks, the rate of insured unemployment, not seasonally adjusted, was less 27 than 6%.

28 (d) A State “on” indicator under subsection (b) or (c) of this section takes 29 precedence over a State “off” indicator under subsection [(c) or (b)] (B) OR (C) of this 30 section, respectively.

31 (e) (1) To compute the rate of insured unemployment under subsections 32 (b) and (c) of this section, the Secretary shall:

1 (i) determine the average weekly number of individuals
2 submitting claims for regular benefits in the State for weeks of unemployment during 3 the most recent 13 consecutive weeks based on reports of the Secretary to the United 4 States Secretary of Labor; and

5 (ii) divide that number by the average monthly number of 6 employees engaged in covered employment for the 1st 4 of the 6 completed calendar
7 quarters ending immediately before the 13 weeks.

8 (2) The Secretary shall make each computation under this subsection
9 in accordance with regulations of the United States Secretary of Labor.
