Section 11–701 through 11–710 to be under the new subtitle “Subtitle 7. Maryland Employment Advancement Right Now Program”
Annotated Code of Maryland
(2008 Replacement Volume and 2012 Supplement)

Preamble
WHEREAS, Even in the most difficult economic times, Maryland has continued to make significant investments in both the State’s K–12 and higher education systems resulting in one of the most highly educated workforces in the country; and

WHEREAS, Despite these advances, many working families continue to face significant challenges in obtaining skills and credentials necessary to secure stable employment and to access opportunities for advancement in employment; and

WHEREAS, Maryland’s employers and economic growth industries continue to lack skilled workers which inhibits the economic growth of the State; and

WHEREAS, Maryland’s workforce development system has many excellent and highly ranked components that are often fragmented in a manner that inhibits the potential for significant economic progress in the State; and

WHEREAS, Creating a coordinated system to advance the skills of the State’s workforce through a collaboration of industry, State and local governments, and nonprofits will grow Maryland’s economy; and

WHEREAS, Providing access to career ladders for employment advancement and reducing barriers to employment can result in long–term improvements in the economic well–being of working families and will assist in sustaining and growing Maryland’s middle class; and

WHEREAS, Maryland’s ability to be competitive in the world economy will only truly improve through working collaborations of public, private, and nonprofit partners that make up the State’s workforce development system; and

WHEREAS, Providing skills training for the rapid employment advancement of individuals while meeting the workforce needs of employers will promote both the prosperity of working families and economic development in the State; now, therefore,

SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND, That the Laws of Maryland read as follows:
