State Government - Commemorative Days - Youth Political Awareness Day

This bill requires the Governor to annually proclaim the first Monday of November as Youth Political Awareness Day and to urge cultural, educational, patriotic, and religious organizations to observe Youth Political Awareness Day properly.

Fiscal Summary

State Effect: Commemorating Youth Political Awareness Day does not affect State finances.

Local Effect: None.

Small Business Effect: None.

Analysis

Current Law: Nine official commemorative days and three months are recognized in State law as shown in Exhibit 1. The Governor also must issue a proclamation each year encouraging citizens and other individuals to observe a moment of silence at 3 p.m. on Memorial Day to unite in remembrance and commemorate the heroic acts and efforts of Marylanders who have served and died in the U.S. Armed Forces.

Background: Election Day in the United States is the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November. Thus, Youth Political Awareness Day would be observed the day before, when national awareness for politics is high.
