22 Article – Estates and Trusts

23 11–102.

24 (b) Subject to §§ 4–409 of this article and 11–103 of this subtitle, the 25 common-law rule against perpetuities as now recognized in the State is preserved, but 26 the rule does not apply to the following:

27 (12) A trust created under § [14–112] 14.5–407 of this article to

29 [Subtitle 1. General Provisions.]

30 [14–101.

32 respect to trusts. The provisions of Titles 1 through 13 of this article do not affect or 33 supersede this power.]

2 §§ 1–202, 1–203, 1–204, 1–205, 1–206, 1–207, 1–208, 1–209, and 1–210.1 of this article 3 shall be applied in construing the terms of an inter vivos trust. Whenever any of those 4 statutory sections refer to a “will,” “estate,” or similar terms relevant primarily to wills 5 and estates or the takers under them, the terms shall be modified to mean “trust 6 instrument,” “trust,” or similar terms to reflect the application of the principles of 7 those sections to inter vivos trusts.]

8 [14–103.

9 (a) (1) A testamentary trustee and trustee of any other trust whose duties 10 comprise the collection and distribution of income from property held under a trust 11 agreement or the preservation and distribution of the property are entitled to 12 commissions provided for in this section for their services in administering the trusts.
13 The amount and source of payment of commissions are subject to the provisions of any 14 valid agreement. Any court having jurisdiction over the administration of the trust 15 may increase or diminish commissions for sufficient cause or may allow special 16 commissions or compensation for services of an unusual nature.

17 (2) A schedule of increased rates of income commissions and corpus 18 commissions may be charged by a trustee whose activities are subject to State or 19 federal supervision or who is a member of the Maryland Bar and who has:

20 (i) Filed a schedule of the increased rates of commissions with 21 an appropriate agency; and 22 (ii) Given notice of the scheduled rates or revisions to the 23 ascertained beneficiaries of the affected trust.

24 (3) The notice required under paragraph (2) of this subsection shall be 25 delivered to the beneficiaries personally or sent to the beneficiaries at their last known 26 address by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested.

27 (b) Accounting from July 1, 1981, whether or not the trust was in existence 28 at that time, income commissions are:

29 (1) 6 percent upon all income from real estate, ground rents, and 30 mortgages collected in each year; and 31 (2) 6 1/2 percent upon the first $10,000 of all other income collected in 32 each year, 5 percent upon the next $10,000, 4 percent upon the next $10,000, and 3 33 percent upon any remainder.

34 Income commissions shall be paid from and chargeable against income. Income 35 collected includes any portion of income payable to a trustee but withheld by the payor 36 in compliance with any revenue law.

1 (c) Accounting from July 1, 1981, whether or not the trust was in existence 2 at that time, commissions are payable at the end of each year upon the fair value of 3 the corpus or principal held in trust at the end of each year as follows:

4 (1) Four tenths of one percent on the first $250,000;

5 (2) One fourth of one percent on the next $250,000;

6 (3) Three twentieths of one percent on the next $500,000; and 7 (4) One tenth of one percent upon any excess. Corpus commissions

8 shall be paid out of and chargeable against the corpus.

9 If a trust terminates, with respect to all or any part of the corpus held in trust 10 in the course of any year, the commission for that year shall be reduced or prorated 11 according to the part of the year elapsed and the amount of corpus as to which the 12 trust terminates, and be chargeable, for such part of a year (and with respect to any 13 such part of the corpus) at such termination of the trust, upon the then value of the 14 corpus.

15 (d) For selling real or leasehold property, a commission upon the proceeds of 16 the sale is payable at the rate allowed by rule of court or statute to trustees appointed 17 to make sales under decrees or orders of the circuit court for the county where the real 18 or leasehold property is situated, or if the property is located outside Maryland, for 19 selling similar property in the county where the trust is being administered. The 20 commission is payable from the proceeds of the sale when collected.

21 (e) Upon the final distribution of any trust estate, or portion of it, an 22 allowance is payable commensurate with the labor and responsibility involved in 23 making the distribution, including the making of any division, the ascertainment of 24 the parties entitled, the ascertainment and payment of taxes, and any necessary 25 transfer of assets. The allowance is subject to revision or determination by any circuit 26 court having jurisdiction. In the absence of special circumstances the allowance shall 27 be equal to one half of one percent upon the fair value of the corpus distributed.

28 (f) In determining what is a single trust for the application of the rates 29 provided in this section, all property held undivided under the terms of the will or 30 other instrument creating the trust shall be considered as a single trust. After any 31 shares have been set apart or divided, to be held in separate trust, each separate trust 32 set apart shall be considered as a single trust.

33 (g) (1) Instead of the rates of income commissions and corpus 34 commissions provided in subsections (b) and (c) of this section, a trustee may charge 35 reasonable compensation calculated in accordance with a schedule of rates previously 36 filed by the trustee with the appropriate agency as specified in paragraph (2) of this 37 subsection, if the trustee is:

1 (i) A financial institution whose activities are subject to 2 supervision by this State or the federal government or which is an instrumentality of 3 the United States; or

4 (ii) A member of the Bar of this State.

5 (2) A trustee shall file a schedule of rates under this subsection as 6 follows:

7 (i) For a savings and loan association, with the State Director
8 of the Division of Savings and Loan Associations;

9 (ii) For all other trustees, including attorneys and State 10 chartered and national banks, with the Commissioner of Financial Regulation; and 11 (iii) For a trustee administering an estate under the jurisdiction 12 of a court, also with the trust clerk of the court.

13 (3) In a trust involving multiple trustees and more than one of the 14 trustees may be entitled to file a schedule of increased rates, the controlling schedule 15 will be the schedule filed by the trustee having custody of the assets and maintaining 16 records of the trust.

17 (4) Whenever a trustee files a schedule of increased rates under this 18 subsection, the trustee shall give notice to the ascertained beneficiaries of each 19 affected trust. The notice required under this paragraph shall be delivered to the 20 beneficiaries personally or sent to the beneficiaries at their last known address by 21 registered or certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested. Any beneficiary 22 of a trust who objects to the schedule of rates to be charged to that trust, after 23 notifying the trustee of the objection, may petition the appropriate circuit court to 24 review the reasonableness of the rates to be charged. The notice required by this 25 paragraph shall include a clear statement of the rights and procedures available to 26 beneficiaries under this subsection. If the court finds that the rates in the schedule are 27 unreasonable for the current fiscal year of the particular trust, the trustee's 28 commissions for that trust for that fiscal year shall be limited to the rates charged that 29 trust during the previous fiscal year.

30 (5) If a trustee does not file a schedule of rates with the appropriate 31 agency under paragraph (2)(i) or (ii) of this subsection and does not notify ascertained 32 beneficiaries as provided in paragraph (4) of this subsection, the trustee is limited to 33 charging the rates set forth in subsections (b) and (c) of this section.

34 (h) An individual trustee who is not authorized to file a schedule of increased 35 rates under this section is limited to charging the rates set forth in subsections (b) and 36 (c) of this section unless the trustee petitions the circuit court for the county where the 37 trustee is located and obtains approval of an increase in fee after giving notice of such 38 action to the ascertained beneficiaries of the trusts affected.

1 (i) The schedule of increased rates of income commissions and corpus 2 commissions which trustees are authorized to charge as provided in subsection (g) of 3 this section is not applicable to guardians.

4 (j) The legal and court costs incurred by the trustee pursuant to any court 5 review under subsection (g)(4) or (h) of this section shall be charged against trustees' 6 fees and may not be assumed by the trust or the beneficiaries.]

7 [14-104.

8 A judge of any court established under the laws of the State or the United 9 States or any clerk of court or register of wills, unless he is the surviving spouse of the 10 grantor of the trust, or is related to the grantor within the third degree, may not serve 11 as a trustee of any inter vivos or testamentary trust created by an instrument and 12 executed in Maryland by the grantor or any trustee, administered in the State or 13 governed by the laws of the State, unless he was actually serving as a trustee of the 14 trust on December 31, 1969.]

15 [14-105.

16 In the absence of actual knowledge or of reasonable cause to inquire as to 17 whether a trustee is improperly exercising his power, a person dealing with a trustee 18 need not inquire whether a trustee is properly exercising his power, and is protected 19 as if the trustee properly exercised the power. A person need not see to the proper 20 application of trust assets paid or delivered to a trustee.]

21 [14-106.

27 petition by a trustee, personal representative, beneficiary, or a party in interest, after 28 notice as the court may direct to the trustees, personal representatives, beneficiaries, 29 and parties in interest, and for good cause shown, a court may:

31 (ii) Consolidate 2 or more trusts into a single trust.

32 (2) A court may divide a trust or consolidate trusts:

4 consolidation of trusts will not defeat or materially impair:

5 1. The accomplishment of trust purposes; or 6 2. The interests of the beneficiaries.

7 (3) A court may pass orders that the court considers proper or 8 necessary to protect the interests of a:

9 (i) Trustee;

21 court, in accordance with the applicable provisions of the governing instrument.]
