Baltimore County - Education - Report on Low-Achieving Students

This bill requires the Baltimore County Superintendent of Schools to submit a report on (1) the number of students in grades 9 through 12 for each Baltimore County public school for the past three school years with less than a 2.0 unweighted grade point average and (2) programs that have been established in Baltimore County to reduce the number of students in public schools with less than a 2.0 unweighted grade point average. The report must be submitted to the Baltimore County Board of Education, the Baltimore County Council, and the Baltimore County Delegation of the General Assembly by December 1, 2014.

The bill takes effect June 1, 2014, and terminates May 31, 2015.
