

Article - Business Regulation

[Previous][Next]

§6–206.

The Secretary of State or the Attorney General may make reciprocal agreements with other states to:

(1) exchange information about charitable organizations or charitable representatives; or

(2) accept substantially similar information submitted to those states by charitable organizations or charitable representatives instead of the information required to be submitted under this title.

[Previous][Next]