

Article - Business Regulation

[Previous][Next]

§6-608.

(a) In connection with a charitable solicitation, a charitable organization or charitable representative may not commit an act or engage in a practice that by affirmative representation or by omission is misleading about anything important to, or likely to affect, another person's decision to make a charitable contribution.

(b) An act or practice prohibited by this section is a violation of this section, whether or not a person has been misled, deceived, or damaged.

[Previous][Next]