

Article - Commercial Law

[Previous][Next]

§12-403.1.

In granting or denying any application for a loan, a lender may not discriminate against any loan applicant solely on the basis of age. Refusal to grant a loan to an applicant who is under the age of 18 is not discrimination solely on the basis of age.

[Previous][Next]