

Article - Commercial Law

[Previous][Next]

§14–1307.

A person may not sell any ladder manufactured after July 1, 1976 which is made with material capable of conducting an electrical current unless:

(1) A warning is affixed in a prominent place on the ladder which indicates that the ladder is a conductor of electricity; or

(2) The ladder is made in a manner to prevent the conduction of an electrical current.

[Previous][Next]