§14–3502.

(a) In this section, “customer” means an individual residing in the State who provides personal information to a business for the purpose of purchasing or leasing a product or obtaining a service from the business.

(b) When a business is destroying a customer’s records that contain personal information of the customer, the business shall take reasonable steps to protect against unauthorized access to or use of the personal information, taking into account:

- (1) The sensitivity of the records;
- (2) The nature and size of the business and its operations;
- (3) The costs and benefits of different destruction methods; and
- (4) Available technology.
