§4–107.

(a) It is not necessary to set forth a copy of an ordinance or a section of an ordinance in a charging document for the violation of an ordinance of a municipal corporation, a county, or a special taxing area.

(b) A charging document specified in subsection (a) of this section is sufficient if it:

(1) cites the ordinance alleged to have been violated by date of passage or, if codified, by article and section number;

(2) conforms to the law governing the framing of charging documents for a violation of an act of the General Assembly; and

(3) concludes with the words “against the peace, government, and dignity of the State.”.
