§10–104.

If property is discovered after an estate has been closed and the appointment of the personal representative has been terminated pursuant to § 10–101 of this subtitle, the court, upon petition of an interested person and upon such notice as it may direct, may appoint the same or a successor personal representative and make other appropriate orders. Further proceedings shall be conducted pursuant to the provisions of the estates of decedents law as may be applicable, but no claim previously barred may be asserted in the reopened administration.
