§15–524.

(a) A trustee shall make the following disbursements from principal:

(1) Regular compensation of the trustee on principal, if determined in accordance with § 14.5–708(c) of this article;

(2) That portion of the regular compensation of the trustee, if the compensation is determined in a manner other than in accordance with § 14.5–708(b) and (c) of this article, and that portion of the compensation of any person providing investment advisory or custodial services to the trustee, as the trustee determines is fair and reasonable in accordance with § 15–502(b) of this subtitle;

(3) One–half of all expenses for accountings, judicial proceedings, or other matters that involve both the income and remainder interests;

(4) All of the trustee’s compensation calculated on principal as a fee for acceptance, distribution, or termination, and disbursements made to prepare property for sale;

(5) Payments on the principal of a trust debt;

(6) Expenses of a proceeding that concerns primarily principal, including a proceeding to construe the trust or to protect the trust or its property;

(7) Premiums paid on a policy of insurance not described in § 15–523(5) of this subtitle of which the trust is the owner and beneficiary;

(8) Estate, inheritance, and other transfer taxes, including penalties, apportioned to the trust; and

(9) Disbursements related to environmental matters, including reclamation, assessing environmental conditions, remedying and removing environmental contamination, monitoring remedial activities and the release of substances, preventing future releases of substances, collecting amounts from persons liable or potentially liable for the costs of those activities, penalties imposed under environmental laws or regulations and other payments made to comply with those laws or regulations, statutory or common law claims by third parties, and defending claims based on environmental matters.

(b) If a principal asset is encumbered with an obligation that requires income from that asset to be paid directly to the creditor, the trustee shall transfer from principal to income an amount equal to the income paid to the creditor in reduction of the principal balance of the obligation.
