§2–105.

- (a) In a controversy in the court, an issue of fact may be determined by the court.
- (b) At the request of an interested person made within the time determined by the court, the issue of fact may be determined by a court of law. When the request is made before the court has determined the issue of fact, the court shall transmit the issue to a court of law.
- (c) After the determination of the issue, whether by the court or after transmission to a court of law, the court shall enter an appropriate judgment or decree.
- (d) This section does not apply where the estate is administered under the jurisdiction of a court having general equity jurisdiction.
