

Article - Family Law

[Previous][Next]

§10–130.

Within 10 days after the employer receives notice of an obligor's decision to terminate employment or within 10 days after the termination, whichever occurs earlier, the employer shall:

- (1) notify the court and the support enforcement agency; and
- (2) forward to the court any available information as to the obligor's:
 - (i) Social Security number;
 - (ii) home address; and
 - (iii) new place of employment.

[Previous][Next]