

Article - Health - General

[Previous][Next]

§10-917.

The administrative head of any facility may appoint any employee as a law enforcement officer and, while the employee holds a special police commission issued by the Governor, the employee may:

(1) Return an individual to the facility from which the individual escaped;
and

(2) Be used to protect individuals or property at the facility.

[Previous][Next]