

Article - Health - General

[Previous][Next]

§22-503.

Hazardous material is considered to be misbranded if the hazardous material:

- (1) Is intended or packaged in a form suitable for use in the home or by children; and
- (2) Fails to meet the labeling requirements established by the rules and regulations adopted under this subtitle.

[Previous][Next]