§10–317.

(a) After reasonable notice and a public hearing, a county may enact local laws to protect and promote public safety, health, morals, comfort, and welfare, relating to:

- (1) the location, construction, repair, and use of streets and highways;
- (2) the disposal of wastes;
- (3) the control of soil erosion and the preservation of the natural topography; or
- (4) the erection, construction, repair, and use of buildings and other structures.

(b) A county may enact local laws to provide for appropriate administrative and judicial proceedings, remedies, and sanctions to administer and enforce local laws enacted under subsection (a) of this section.
