

Article - Local Government

[Previous][Next]

§10–326.

A county may enact local laws that require a developer of land for residential use to comply with pertinent underground electric and telephone residential service regulations adopted by the Public Service Commission, including those pertaining to deposits.

[Previous][Next]