

Article - Local Government

[Previous][Next]

§12-521.

If the governing body of a county decides to open or alter a road, the governing body shall:

(1) at the usual time for imposing taxes, impose a tax on the assessable property of the county in an amount sufficient to open or alter the road and pay any damages awarded and owed by the county; and

(2) open or alter the road as soon as it can be done conveniently.

[Previous][Next]