

Article - Public Safety

[Previous][Next]

§4-505.

For population and density determinations under this subtitle:

(1) population numbers for a county shall be those estimated by the Department of Health and Mental Hygiene, as of July 1 of each year; and

(2) the percentage of population residing in municipalities shall be determined from time to time by the most recently published federal decennial census data.

[Previous][Next]