

Article - State Government

[Previous][Next]

§10–217.

The standard of proof in a contested case shall be the preponderance of evidence unless the standard of clear and convincing evidence is imposed on the agency by regulation, statute, or constitution.

[Previous][Next]