

Article - State Government

[Previous][Next]

§6-303.

(a) The Office of the Attorney General shall include in its annual budget sufficient money for the administration and operation of the Division.

(b) The Division may retain as necessary for a particular matter or employ experts in the field of insurance regulation, including accountants, actuaries, and lawyers.

(c) The People's Insurance Counsel shall direct the Division.

[Previous][Next]