St. Mary's County - Violations of Ordinances, Rules, and Regulations - Penalties

---

This bill consolidates and makes uniform certain civil and criminal penalty provisions for violations of various ordinances, rules, and regulations concerning subdivision, zoning, roads and other public ways, bridges, public safety, and sedimentation control adopted or enacted by the St. Mary's County Commissioners. The bill also provides that a violation of a public safety ordinance is a civil infraction and that every day a violation continues is a separate civil offense, and authorizes St. Mary's County to bring an action for an injunction against a person who violates a public safety ordinance, rule, or regulation to require the correction or elimination of a violation.
